SUSSEX FOR GOOD ROADS.

Enthusiastic Meeting Held and Organization Formed.

SUSSEX C. H., VA., September 23.—An enthusiastic and well attended good roads meeting was held here yesterday. The meeting was presided over by R. F. Moss, of Booker, vice-president of the State Good Roads Association for Sussex county. Thomas H. Howerton acted as secretary. Representative citizens were present from every district in the county, and the women of Bethel M. E. Church provided a dinner on the Courthouse Square. In assuming the chair Mr. Moss made a short but enthusiastic talk on good roads. The audience was disappointed by the failure of Senator Lassiter, of Petersburg, and Highway Commissioner Wilson to be present. In their absence the addresses were delivered by Judge J. F. West and Commonwealth's Attorney W. B. Cocke, of Sussex, Judgo West was first introduced, and delivered an interesting address on the importance of road improvement in Sussex and the methods of improving them. He was followed by Mr. Cocks, who spoke in favor of "good roads," maintaining that Sussex county could not afford to have her sister counties outsirp her in this great work.

The meeting was then thrown open made short talks, among them Robert W. Arnold, John D. Grammer, Joe T. White, George D. Grizard, George H. Blood, J. M. Tyus, P. H. Lamb and others. The sentiment for good roads in Sussex was unanimous, but no action was taken declaring what kind of roads should be built, as this meeting was intended for a discussion and intercanage of ideas upon the subject The Sussex county Good Roads Association was organized, with R. F. Moss as its president, Another meeting with Enthusiastic Meeting Held and Organi-

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BUENA VISTA, VA., September 23.—
Thieves last night broke into all the watch boxes on the Norfolk and Western Railroad between Glasgow and Buena Vista, and stole the Winchesters therein. They were located at the coal wharf bin by Night Policeman Beard, and when he tried to capture them they fired at him, one of the balls hitting him in the stomach, but not doing any serious injury. A posse was formed by the Mayor and the woods surrounded where the men had taken refuge, but at this writing the latter have not been captured.
